The Montana Veterans' Public Employment Preference Act and Persons with Disabilities Public Employment Preference Act allow eligible applicants to request a hiring preference when applying for a state government position. Applying for a preference is voluntary, and all information related to a preference will be kept confidential. State agencies will only use this information during the hiring process and will maintain the information in a separate confidential file. Applicants who wish to claim an employment preference must complete and return this form along with their completed employment application. An electronic version of this form is available at <http://wsd.dli.mt.gov/service/app.asp>. Applicants requesting preference must provide the appropriate documentation along with their application to verify eligibility.

Contact the local Job Service Workforce Center for details on veterans' preference or the local Montana Vocational Rehabilitation Services Office for details on obtaining a disability preference certification.
